

2019 Conquer Cancer Foundation Global Oncology Young Investigator Award Recipients*

*Reflects recipient institutions at the time of award; Listing current as of 5/15/2019

Asya Agulnik, MD, MPH

St. Jude Children's Research Hospital, Inc.

“Impact of Implementing a Pediatric Early Warning System (PEWS) on Hospital Outcomes in Resource-Limited Pediatric Oncology Centers”

Mentored by: Carlos Rodriguez-Galindo, MD

Elysia Alvarez, MD, MPH

University of California, Davis

“Improving Care for Adolescent and Young Adult Oncology Patients in Mexico and Central America”

Mentored by: Marcio Malogolowkin, MD

Pedro Isaacsson Velho, MD

Instituto do Cancer do Estado de Sao Paulo

“Nivolumab in Prostate Cancer with DNA Repair Defects (DRD)”

Mentored by: Gilberto Castro, Jr., MD, PhD, Mario Eisenberger, MD

Sebastian Mondaca, MD

Pontificia Universidad Catolica de Chile

“Trastuzumab deruxtecan in patients with metastatic HER2-amplified gallbladder cancer: an international phase II trial”

Mentored by: Marcelo Garrido, MD

Sheena Mukkada, MD, MPH

St. Jude Children's Research Hospital, Inc.

“Antibiotic Resistance in Global Pediatric Oncology Patients”

Mentored by: Carlos Rodriguez-Galindo, MD

David J. Pinato, MD, MRes, MRCP, PhD

Imperial College London

“Integrated phenotyping of the anti-cancer immune response in HIV-associated hepatocellular carcinoma: a global study.”

Mentored by: Norbert Brau, MD, PhD, Ramya Ramaswami, MD, MPH